

Selection Criteria: Secondary

BA83	How Do You Say Hello?	Book
	Using Overseas Visitors within Secondary English
Description	This book explores the issues and questions of having visitors from other countries and their unique value in the classroom.
BA90	Under the Flag	Book
	Assemblies for Citizenship in Secondary Schools
Description	Readings for assemblies drawn on thousands of true stories of children around the world with, and for whom, UNICEF has worked
BAF/GEN/07	The African Heritage	Book
Description	Written by three Zimbabwean historians, this secondary textbook aims to provide a balanced, complete and analytical history to correct distortions and myths generated from euro-centric colonial history.
BAF/GEN/08	The African Heritage	Book
	History for Junior Secondary Schools Book 2
Description	This book helps students develop their own skills of analysis as well as seeking to correct a number of myths for distortions about the historical development of capitalism.
BAF/GEN/10	Introduction to African Religion	Book
Description	This book is a reasonably simple introduction to African religion. Suitable for secondary RE or for readers who wish to begin learning about African religious culture.
BB93	Talking Rights; taking responsibility	Book
	A Speaking and Listening Resource for Secondary English and Citizenship
Description	6 units covering Talking about rights, exploring identity, dealing with conflict, living in the community, examining the media and planning for the future.
BG22	Citizens of the world	Book
	Criteria for education for International understanding
Description	This is designed both to help teachers and others to develop and strengthen education for international understanding in the secondary school classroom, and to contribute to the necessary dialogue on the contemporary meaning and nature of world citizenship
BG25	How Do You Say Hello?	Book
	Using Overseas Visitors within Secondary English
Description	This booklet has its origins in two linked projects initiated by DEC(South Yorkshire). One of these focused on opportunities for including development issues within the English curriculum at key stages 3&4.

BH28	The Nine Silly Brothers	Book
	and other stories from Eritrea
Description	With ideas for making global connections through story in the upper primary and secondary classroom. Background to the stories and their collection, using folk stories in the classroom, background information on Eritrea
BP05	Under the UN Flag	Book
	Assemblies for Citizenship in Secondary Schools
Description	A book of readings for assemblies drawing on true stories from children from around the world
P072	Damned Water	Teacher Pack
	A photo pack for Secondary Geography
Description	Photo pack o water and dams in the Komadugu-Yobe river basin in Nigeria. Introductions to water and dams, finding out about Nigeria, the hydrology of the river basin, with map work, comparing four farmers - the + and - of dams.
P254	Global Lines	Teacher Pack
	A Citizenship Teaching Resource for Secondary Schools
Description	A cross curricular teaching pack to introduce 13-17 year olds to the concepts of global citizenship, by helping young people grasp a better understanding of the world they live in and their place within it.
P328	The Population Jigsaw	Teacher Pack
	Fitting the pieces together for a healthy world
Description	This resource on global population and reproductive health at the request of, and with input from, secondary school geography teachers and students. This included information regarding the impacts of ageing, population, policies, family planning, safe mother hood.
P350	Out of the Bin and into the Secondary	Teacher Pack
	A teaching pack on waste minimization for key stage 3
Description	The pack aims to inform pupils about the issue of waste, which is one area of sustainable development. The pack contains lesson plans, information sheets, photocopiable worksheets, case studies, photographs, newspaper articles and list of relevant speakers.
P371	Talking rights; taking responsibilities	Teacher Pack
Description	Speaking and listening resource for Secondary English and Citizenship stereotypes.
UNICEF Pack	Talking Rights, taking responsibilities
Description	A speaking and listening resource activities for secondary and English and Citizenship stereotypes
V138	Modern Slavery/ Global Citizenship	Video
Description	Slavery tx 28th Sept 200 1.5 hours, Global Citizenship Oct 2000 BBC, primary 1/2 hour, Secondary 1/2 hour.

