

Resources on different Global Topics

BA92	If the World Were a Village	Book
Description:	This book tells us who we are, where we live, how fast we are growing, which languages we speak, which religions we practice and more. So come and learn about our global village. What you discover may surprise you.
BB10	Global Geography	Book
Description	Learning through development education
BB91	Education for Development	Book
Description	A Teacher's Resource for Global Learning Text book covering many aspects of development education including; interdependence; images and perceptions; social justice; conflict and conflict resolution; change and the future; taking action.
BC27	Guide to Good Practice	Book
Description	Local Diversity-Global Opportunities This book is intended to be read by anyone who works in local or wider communities, to try and overcome racism in an ever multi-cultural society.
BD20	Poverty and the planet	Book
Description	A question of survival It's about global causes of the poverty and ecological degradation which daily light the lives of at least a billion people on our earth.
BF02	Our Common Future	Book
Description	The World Commission on Environment and Development This book deals with the full consequences of acid rain global warming ozone depletion.
BF23	It's our World too	Book
Description	A local-global approach to environment education This book talks about the understanding the links between environment issues locally and in other parts of the world.
BF33	Global Cities	Book
Description	Investigating the ecology of our towns and cities This book looks at the way mega cities produce effects that spread around the global environment.
BF42	Globalization	Book
Description	This book talks about the current conditions of the world it is a very transparent book that shows everything about the world.

BF49	Globalisation What's it all about	Book
Description	This book talks about the meaning of globalization as a whole world.
BF51	Heart of West Africa Textiles and Global Issues	Book
Description	This book shows the various art that is done in different African countries eg. Ghana, Niger, Nigeria
BF52	The challenge of Globalisation	Book
Description	This book talks about the moral and ethical issues which globalisation raises and which young people should consider
BF58	Managing Globalisation Race	Book
Description	This book covers all concepts of globalisation including related issues like competitive advantage, the gulf between the rich and poor sanctions, corporations etc
BF60	It's our World too	Book
Description	a local global approach to environment education Understanding the relationship between environmental issues locally and in other parts of the world. Focusing on the UN report 'Children and the Environment'
BG11	State Of The World Progress Towards a Sustainable Future	Book
Description	This books focuses on consumption in relation to sustainability and global issues. An excellent resource with tones of information and case studies.
BG13	Atlas of Women A Economic, Social and Political Survey	Book
Description	Using maps, graphs and text to illustrate up-to-date research and data concerning the global position of women in the local, national and international communities.
BG14	The State of the World Atlas A Unique Survey of Current Events and Global Trends	Book
Description	Exceptional resource packed with interesting information concerning current affairs and global trends. Beautifully and interestingly illustrated. A great resource!!
BG16	The Atlas of Food	Book
Description	Interesting and informative. This book offers a wide range of data concerning international food production and consumption. Food no longer just a means of nourishment; it is a global power tool. Obesity and starvation are critical global challenges

BH08	The Trade Trap	Book
	Poverty and the Global Commodity Markets
Description	This book talks about how the people of third world they work hard but they get little money, and the book also talks about how to avoid the problem on tariff and trades interests of the developing nations.
BH14	The Global Consumer	Book
	Best buy top help the third world
Description	This book talks about choosing wisely what to buy and what to avoid .
BH24	Water	Book
	How We Use and Abuse Our Planet
Description	This book serves up a wide range of facts, figures and case studies which look at the impact of water on the world. There are a range of ideas for encouraging responsible water consumption at both a local and global level.
BH26	UP in Smoke?	Book
	Threats from and responses to the impact of global warming on human development
Description	The need for informing the public on the variety of the impact of climate change on human existence across the globe has never been
BH28	The Nine Silly Brothers	Book and other stories from Eritrea
Description	With ideas for making global connections through story in the upper primary and secondary classroom. Background to the stories and their collection, using folk stories in the classroom, background information on Eritrea
BL11	Guidelines for global issues in technology	Book
Description	The aim of this book is to introduce to teachers the opportunities and challenges of incorporation global issues into their art work.
BL15	Artists in schools on the line	Book
	Artists supporting global education in schools across the UK
Description	talks about the artist in on line
BN12	Global communities	Book
	Learning about refugee issues
Description	This pack is full of tried and tested activities which explore global refugee and migration issues and makes links to broader issues such as human rights
BN13	Global Communities	Book
	Learning about refugee issues primary school teaching resource
Description	This pack is aims to show that refugees and asylum seekers are ordinary people who find themselves in extraordinary circumstances and is aimed at primary school age

BV03	Threadbare	Book
Description	How the rich stitch up the world's rag trade This book opens up the modern global textile and clothing industry it explains how the rich have discriminated against the poor world for three decades through the multi fiber
BV12	Trading away our rights	Book
Description	Women working in global supply chains Globalisation and trade have drawn millions of women in developing countries into paid work. Their labour is contributing to rising global prosperity and to the profits. But women workers are systematically being denied their fair share of the benefits.
G01	Trade for Life	Game
Description	Youth Pack Everything you need to know about Global Trade; what's wrong with it, what could be better, and what you can do about changing the world
P106	Development Compass Rose	Teacher Pack
Description	A consultation pack Photo pack to stimulate discussion on local/global development issues, including the economic, environmental and social dimensions
P121	Summing up the World	Teacher Pack
Description	Mathematical activities with a global perspective Real life math's activities, on debt, child benefit, the cost of food, water, smoking, women
P169	We the World	Teacher Pack
Description	An activity pack developed to teach global citizenship through the lives and experiences of 3 tribal children
P171	The Final Frontier	Teacher Pack
Description	Global issues about land use, economic and human development and environmental degradation are explored from the perspective of how they affect the lives of Maasai pastoralists.
P184	A World of Investigations	Teacher Pack
Description	The approach encourages children to generate their own questions and from these to plan, carry out and evaluate investigations. Encourages children to set their investigations in a global context.
P188	Shops and Markets	Teacher Pack
Description	A photo pack to encourage children to look beyond the stereotypes of developing countries. Useful for global citizenship so that children can become aware that the world extends beyond their own locality

P198	Learning Global lessons	Teacher Pack
	50 non-fiction literacy hours
Description	This pack provides teachers with resources for 50 non-fiction literacy hours. It is divided into five units, each generating two weeks work. Units focus on a Nat Literacy Strategy genre, KS2 year and term, a graphic and apart of the world.
P208	Global Warming	Teacher Pack
Description	Global warming, or climate change, a cause for concern around the world. This booklet gives an idea of what it is all about, as well as information and ideas for projects that you can do at home or at school.
P217	Science across the world	Teacher Pack
	Exploring science locally sharing insights globally
Description	Pack talks about the science in the whole world and how to preserve it
P228	The Whole World in our Hands	Teacher Pack
	Exploring the Global Issues within the Literacy hour
Description	This pack explores of third world problems at the Childs own level
P232 with V132	Get Global	Teacher Pack
	A skills based approach to active global citizenship
P238	Heart of West Africa	Teacher Pack
	Textiles and Global Issues
Description	A practical and educational art and citizenship resource
P247	The Wealth We Have In Common	Teacher Pack
	Creative Approaches To Global Citizenship in the Primary School
Description	This resource explores themes of identity, rights, sustainable development, and trade through creative activities. The pack uses art, music and literacy to engage pupils in global issues and encourages active participation.
P252a	We The World	Teacher Pack
	Amazonia, Antarctica and Rainforest
Description	A unique activity pack for 8-12 year olds specially developed to teach global citizenship through the lives and experiences of three tribal children from Brazil, Congo and Siberia.
P252b	We The World	Teacher Pack
	Amazonia, Arctic and Rainforest
Description	A unique activity pack for 8-12 year olds specially developed to teach global citizenship through the lives and experiences of three tribal children from Brazil, Congo and Siberia.

P254	Global Lines	Teacher Pack
	A Citizenship Teaching Resource for Secondary Schools
Description	A cross curricular teaching pack to introduce 13-17 year olds to the concepts of global citizenship, by helping young people grasp a better understanding of the world they live in and their place within it.
P256	Water A Right Or A Commodity?	Teacher Pack
	Discussing Global Issues
Description	A role play based pack which looks at the role of water in .Ghana and Vietnam. Includes photographs.
P259	Exploring Our World	Teacher Pack
	Investigating Issues of Interdependence and Social Justice in the 21st Century
Description	Teaching pack which offers great starting place for a range of highly topical development and global issues.
P264	Rigged Rules and Double Standards	Teacher Pack
	Trade, Globalisation and the Fight Against Poverty
Description	Make Trade Fair is the ethos behind this publication. Oxfam aims to build a movement as effective as the anti apartheid campaign, to iron out the inequalities of international trade.
P265	Globalisation	Teacher Pack
Description	Globalisation offers a great beginning for anyone wanting to access clear information about globalisation and its associated issues.
P266	Who Decides?	Teacher Pack
	Citizenship Through Geography
Description	This pack offers students the knowledge and skills to understand their rights and responsibilities as global citizens and keys perfectly into the citizenship and geography elements of KS3 curriculum.
P267	Working Children Worldwide	Teacher Pack
	Child Labour and Globalisation
Description	This pack provides information, activities and materials to introduce children's work, both past and present into the classroom.
P268	Learning Today With Tomorrow In Mind	Teacher Pack
	How Are We All Connected?
Description	Designed to support education for sustainable development in schools. Activities and frameworks for teachers to challenge their pupils about global links and related issues.
P270	Just Acting	Teacher Pack
	15 Sketches on Debt, Fair Trade, Water, Trade Rules and other Global Issues
Description	A series of pertinent sketches that can be used in a very informal way to get across very important messages about debt, poverty, fair trade, trade rules, HIV/AIDS, water, refugees and tourism.

P271	Toying With Technology	Teacher Pack
Description	A Resource for Design and Technology with a Global Perspective A video and photo pack filled with ideas and activities for KS1 design and technology pupils. All focused on toys.
P272	Seeing Through the Spin	Teacher Pack
Description	Public Relations in the Global Economy An excellent pack for teachers and facilitators to expose the often hidden aspects of TNC (trans-national corporation) public relations
P275	Focus on Rainforests	Teacher Pack
Description	Teacher's Guide This photo pack seeks to make children aware of how vital healthy rainforests are for our planet. Using activities and information to show the tensions between development and conservation as well as local and global action for sustaining existing forest.
P276	What is Development?	Teacher Pack
Description	Teaching About Development Issues at KS3. This pack seeks to support teachers to enable their students to challenge and question the different elements of development, explore a range of perspectives, understand the local-global concept as well as interdependence.
P277	Water Numerate	Teacher Pack
Description	Daily Maths for the Global Citizen at Yr 6 term 3 and Yr7 term 1 This pack uses math's to incorporate critical global issues into pupils thinking. It uses a global overview and then switches to a case study
P281	Destinations In Focus	Teacher Pack
Description	A Resource Pack on Sustainable Tourism from Tourism Concern This explores the very complex area of travel and sustainable tourism and the role of travel as a global industry.
P290	The Challenge of Global Citizenship	Teacher Pack
Description	A Handbook for teachers of 11-16 Year Olds. Global citizenship is an outlook that anyone, anywhere in the world, at any age can have. This handbook gives teachers the key concepts behind global citizenship to enable pupils see how they value our earth and safeguard it for future generations.
P310	To Begin at the Beginning	Teacher Pack
Description	Bringing a global dimension to the early years It includes practical activities for use in early years settings, links to early learning goals, easy to follow instructions for activities.

P311	Street Life- Rwanda Teacher Pack
	A Global Education Resource pack for KS 3-4
Description	It includes 5 detailed lesson plans and accompanying resource sheets. A CD with digital photos which can be used to supplement lessons, A 45 min film on DVD in 7 parts, documenting the boys daily lives and interviews with SACCA, additional worksheets
P315	How Has Globalisation Affected Migration	Teacher Pack
	Individuals, families, whole communities move in search of a better life. What drives them to it?
Description	The end of cold war coincided with the outbreak of conflict and war in many regions particularly Europe and Africa. This has resulted in a steady flow of refugees and asylum seekers across the globe. This booklet seeks to make clear the terminology used to
P317	Is Globalisation Good for the worlds HEALTH?	Teacher Pack
	A doctor around the corner, well equipped hospitals in every city - but what is it like in the majority world?
Description	These activities explore the degree of control ordinary people have over their health care. Should we share in the responsibility for these inequalities? And if so how do we make our feelings known to those in power?
P318	Can Debt Relief HELP THE World's Poor?	Teacher Pack
	Trans-global money lenders appear generous but the poor seem to be getting poorer. Why?
Description	This booklet, aims to inform students about the consequences for people whose governments find themselves in debt. It explores the impact of international monetary fund policy and small scale alternatives using real case studies
P319	Is Globalisation Helping the World COMMUNICATE?	Teacher Pack
	The internet gives us instant access to everything - but is anyone being left behind?
Description	These activities examine how less economically developed countries are unable to make use of these opportunities and the inequality this perpetuates. They also look at the media in terms of Fact, opinion and Bias
P323	Telling stories	Teacher Pack
	Once upon a time.....
Description	Using traditional stories from around the world to promote Global Citizenship
P327	A healthy diet? Who decides?	Teacher Pack
	Discussing Global Issues
Description	Utilizes case studies from 2 countries: Ethiopia and Tajikistan, and draws on information from the UK, to explore the nutritional components of a healthy diet and where responsibility can lie for ensuring that children are well fed.

P328	The Population Jigsaw	Teacher Pack
	Fitting the pieces together for a healthy world
Description	This resource on global population and reproductive health at the request of, and with input from, secondary school geography teachers and students. This included information regarding the impacts of ageing, population, policies, family planning, safe mother
P332	The Young Global Citizens Passport Scheme	Teacher Pack
Description	It is an exciting tool for introducing important world issues and linking them to local concerns and actions. It uses activities that are fun, accessible and interactive. It provides ideas for practical projects
P333	Global Youth Work	Teacher Pack
Description	Making Global Connections and promoting Global Perspectives this pack is designed as a tutor manual to accompany 30hrs of training activity for youth and community workers at Certificate Level1. Each session has clear instructions, timings and learning Out comes. It can be used as a toolbox, to dip in and try out in
P334	Global Citizenship	Teacher Pack
	The Handbook for Primary Teaching
Description	This handbook explains global citizenship and develops its principles into clear, practical pointers for use in school. By discussing the issues, ideas and approaches in this handbook users will be able to explore and develop their own understanding of Global Citizenship
P340	Our World, Our Future	Teacher Pack
	A teaching resource on development for senior primary Geography, for 5th and 6th classes
Description	The resource encourages pupils to explore the meaning and importance of development in today's world from a child's perspective, in relation to local and global development issues. There is a strong focus on Millennium Development goals.
P369	Just Linking	Teacher Pack
	A guide to linking schools
Description	Handbook + DVD + CD ROM providing a guide for schools wanting to explore global issues through a UK link.
P372	How do we make Peace?	Teacher Pack
	Discussing Global Issues
Description	Teacher's book; 6 photos with case histories and activities
P373	Global Journey	Teacher Pack
Description	Pack of photos with activity ideas on the back.

P403 Developing Global Citizens in primary School Teacher Pack
with video V178

Description: It aims to help teachers and advisers to address global citizenship education in the light of the revised national curriculum and the frame work for personal, social, health and citizenship education at key stages 1 and 2.

P417 Pandemic Teacher Pack
Global Health and HIV

Description: Every 15 secs a young person is infected with HIV. Pandemic will give young people in the UK an understanding of a global issue which drastically changing the lives of millions of people worldwide.

P422 Global learning in Primary Schools Teacher Pack

Description: This book explores practical ideas about the educational needs of children within a changing global context. It draws on the creative work of a wide range of primary teachers and their practice at Key stages 1 and 2.

P426 Growing up Global Teacher Pack
Early years global education hand book

Description: This handbook is for anyone in an early year setting who wants to bring a global dimension into their work; it is divided into 12 sections on themes, countries, games, songs, stories and background information

P429 Going for Goals! A toolkit for teaching and learning Teacher Pack about the Millennium Development Goals

Description: The 8 Millennium Development Goals were agreed at the United Nations Summit in Sept 2000. If these goals are reached by 2015, they will have lifted around 500million people out of poverty. The MDGs reflect the themes and issues of the global dimension;

P430 Globetrotters Club Teacher Pack fun activities to engage children in global citizenship

Description: This hand book provides a series of 10 after school club sessions exploring a number of countries and a range of issues such as climate change, rich and poor, and conflict resolution. Each issue link to one of the 8key concepts of the global dimension

REF/01 The World Guide Book

Description An Alternative Reference to the Countries of our Planet
Information on 217 countries. Global and national maps with illustrated graphs and statistics. In-depth description of key global issues: child hood, women, food, health, education, population, employment, habitat, human welfare.

V025a Global Environment Video Video
In the shadow of the city

V138	Modern Slavery/ Global Citizenship	Video
Description	Slavery transmitted 28th Sept 2000 1.5 hours, Global Citizenship Oct 2000 BBC, primary 1/2 hour, Secondary 1/2 hour
V142	Get Global	Video
Description	Talks about various issues of the globe
V145	Globalisation	Video
Description	shows the impacts of globalisation in Indonesia which shows a very good source of globalisation.
V163	Get Global	Video
Description	Multi agency skills based citizenship video which accompanies Get Global pack.
V168	Who Rules the World	Video
Description	A Resources Pack on International Institutions Looks at concept and role of power and how the international community should respond to global issues. Explores role of UN in humanitarian situations, peacekeeping roles and development. Investigates the role of the World Bank and IMF.
V178	Developing Global Citizens in Primary	Video (Professional)
Description	A professional development pack from The Central Bureau for International Education and training and the International Broadcasting trust This video, filmed in 4 different schools for BBC schools television. The video is accompanied by a booklet to support primary teachers and head teachers in developing global perspectives to citizenship and PSHE work.
V201	A Question time style debate: Must Development Cost the Earth	DVD
Description:	SOHO to SOWETO This debate saw members of the public, academics, politicians and charities debate questions such as: How can an effective global climate agreement balance the interests of the west and the rest? Does carbon trading let rich countries off the hook?
V209	Never give up!	CD-ROM
Description:	A citizenship resource for Key Stage 4&5 Never give up presents a snapshot introduction to HIV & AIDS, reflecting on the global impact of HIV & AIDS on individuals, families and communities. This disc includes: curriculum linked lesson plans, Film, Interactive games, Photographic galleries

V210

Water World

CD-ROM

A Citizenship & Geography resource for young people aged 8-14

Description: Water World looks at the issue of global water scarcity and reflects on: Why water is essential for sustaining life, how the value of water is relative and dependent on availability. It includes: core interactive whiteboard game, curriculum linked teaching