

Slavery

BAF/ET/01      An African Giant Awakens      Book

A Liberation Pamphlet

Description: The Ethiopian liberation; the march from slavery and feudalism in to socialism; a period of great turmoil and social upheaval. How have present lifestyles changed compared to the past.

BV15              The Slave Trade      Book

The Story of Transatlantic Slavery

Description: Dr Oliver Ransford begins by describing the discovery of Guinea from where most of the slaves were taken and considers the impact of the European slavers on African traditional societies.

BV17              Unlocking Perceptions      Book

Understanding Slavery's approach to the history and legacies of the transatlantic slave trade.

Description: This book offers insight to anyone planning to develop programmes of study and exhibitions about the history and legacies of the transatlantic slave trade, based on the issues, challenges and dilemmas addressed in the process of developing the USI

P056              Racism and Resistance - Slavery and Trade      Teacher Pack

The Triangular Trade

Description: Active Learning Materials for Anti-Racist education in drama, English and Humanities.

P175              Colonialism, Slavery and the Industrial Revolution      Teacher Pack

Description: Using South Yorkshire as a case study the pack draws together documentary evidence which illustrates the central role of colonialism in the economic, political and cultural development of Britain.

P286              When Rights Are Left      Teacher Pack

Citizenship

Description: Contravention of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights is the focus for this pack. Many different case studies from all across the world illustrate that slavery is still big business.

P287              When Rights Are Left      Teacher Pack

English

Description: The case study of Mary a domestic worker from Sierra Leone who is plunged into slavery by a family in the UK, is the base for various English lessons by thinking and responding to the feelings of Mary through creative writing, and the reliability of media

P366                      The Adventures of Ottobah Cugoano                      Teacher Pack

Slavery and Emancipation: a cross curricular teaching pack

Description: Teachers' handbook with CD ROM + story book to celebrate the second centenary of the abolition of slavery.

V138                      Modern Slavery/ Global Citizenship                      Video

Description: Slavery tx 28th Sept 200 1.5 hours, Global Citizenship Oct 2000 BBC, primary 1/2 hour, Secondary 1/2 hour

V180                      The Un-Fair Trade                      Video

Description: This video is slavery past and present group is made up of five young people and 2 youth workers who all took part in the filming and management of the project. It is a very mixed group from MK with a wide range of experience

V203                      The Un-Fairtrade                      DVD

Description: When five young people find out that forced labour is still happening today, even after slavery was abolished nearly 200 years ago. They decided people should be more aware of what is happening.

V206                      Black History Season Materials                      DVD

Description: It contains: Assemblies, slavery, Biographies, 100 great Black Britons, Black presence in the 20th Century, Black presence p to Tudor times and Walter Tull.